WE ASKED YOU Who's Your Healthcare Hero?

AND THIS IS WHAT YOU SAID...

DANIELLE

"My nursing hero was the hospice nurse that cared for my mother when she was terminally ill. Lynn showed our family such compassion and kindness when we needed it the most. The level of care and empathy that was shown is what paved the way for my career as a nurse.

RENITA

"My nursing hero is my 94-year-old grandmother, whose unwavering dedication to care profoundly shaped my path into nursing... My grandmother's legacy continues to inspire my practice, reminding me daily of the profound impact of compassionate care."

JESSICA

"Barbara Urban was the Director of Nursing at my job as a nurse. She was an exceptional mentor whose guidance and support was instrumental in my professional growth for the first 14 years, from my early days as a novice nurse, then as a unit manager."

SAMUEL

"My nursing hero is actually a Dr. Mark McNemar. He talked me into going back to school to become a nurse after dropping out of high-school and going into construction."

APRIL

"My nursing hero is my aunt, a diplomat who, though not a nurse herself, is the reason I stand as a nurse making a difference in healthcare today. She empowered me to pursue nursing and believed in my potential from the very start.

Amanda Martin

Radiology Technician

Amanda has been a delight to work with. She is proactive, professional, cooperative.

From a recruiter's point of view – all we need is a candidate who delivers the assignment perfectly and completes the onboarding smoothly.

She is a total green flag. She is loving the staff at NYCH+H, working as Radiology Tech, and doing overtime by choice. She is always interactive and communicates all her concerns effectively. We're already discussing our next contract together. Thank you, Amanda!

Mansi says:

"Every successful placement reminds me why I chose this path. Helping someone find not just a job, but a role where they can thrive, is incredibly rewarding. With every positive feedback I receive from the candidate on how I was able to place them to a place where they wanted is extremely motivating".

Norma H

Thank you!

"Robin was very kind and helpful and helps with new contract frustrations and Vardan followed up and found a contract that suited my interest. Tell them exactly what you want and they will try their best!"
